

The Married's v Single's match resulted in a draw during the traditional Boxing Day fixture at BRFC this year. The singles, captained by Nick Tappin looked the stronger side in a closely fought game which saw them take to the field dressed as "Tarts". A powerful combination of youth, testosterone and aggression was hampered by ill fitting skirts, laddered stockings and tight g-strings. Crowy looked particularly fetching in her tight black number, but Taps, Ed, Wayno & Eyresy certainly got the blood rushing through a few male veins on the day. The marrieds, captained by Glenn Tucker were able to field a team which blended experience, good looks and amazing ability to hold the singles to a draw which saw both sides score 2 tries. All in all, a splendid day out which ended back in the clubhouse where festive pints were washed down with Port and Guinness drank from the Club Potty. Many Thanks to Taps Snr for ref'ing as had it not been for his immense knowledge of the game and ability to spot a forward pass from 90 yds, the singles may well have scored another 5 or so tries.
